This 160m2 country house has 5 bedrooms, living room, dining room, two fireplaces, a bathroom, pool, mains water and electricity, barbecue and sits on 50,000m2 of land. It is roughly 15 km from Yecla.

Yecla is a town with a singular spirit, due mainly to its enclave situation, and is the living image of 'Castilian' Murcia, the area of transition between the coastal zone and the plains of La Mancha. Preceded by the fame of its inhabitants, it is naturally a town of enormous character which has impressed such writers as Azorín or Pío Baroja. The town is watched over by the Castle and the Sanctuary of La Purísima, which locals troop up to every 7th December 'the day of the Alborada' firing volleys of gunpowder with their ancient harquebuses.

Yecla has...
